DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 2, 3, 15, 16, 18, 29, 40 and 41 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Lipo US # 4,724,373.

With respect to claims 1, 2, 3, 15, 16, 18, 29, 30, 40 and 41, Lipo teaches in Fig. 9 a mathematically operating controller for induction machine wherein, the operation is based on obtained from current transformers 103 currents, supplied to the motor and wherein the current feedback values are processed and combined mathematically with a torque reference value to mathematically obtain an error signal 113 and to generate torque command for machine operation, (see column 10, lines 21-48). Lipo teaches generating of d and q- axis voltage values and torque error calculation with reference 110, as a function of torque reference command, as in claim 2 and similar.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 3-14, 19-28 and 30-39 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Lipo US # 4,724,373.

With respect to above claims Lipo teaches generating of d and q- axis voltage values as a function of torque reference command. The torque can be calculated utilizing measurements of voltages in the number of phases sufficient to determine the flux of the machine, (see Fig. 8, and column 9, lines 1-68 and column 10, lines 1-20, column 5, lines 1-65, column 8, lines 53-67).

It appears that Lipo teaching is very close to the submitted application and can be obviously used for claimed method and apparatus for determining torque command.
